

Thy Kingdom come
Let your will be done
On Earth as it is in Heaven

They say we're all in the pursuit of happiness (A life so fabulous) so we fight for what's ours like an activist The struggles here we can find across the atlas And it all started when Adam gave up his own palace

Now the earth waits for it's rightful owner 2,000 years ago the 2nd Adam told us the kingdom is at hand, died for the sins of man just so he can bring us back to his original plan where we rule over the land and meet every demand and nature awaits for us kings to take a stand but we need to understand that we can change the circumstances the kingdom is enough so we choose when to advance

[Chorus] [x2]
You got the keys inside this kingdom, lift up your head it's only begun, keep holding on and you'll see the son everybody sing it now

wooooooh
wooooooh

I heard you say that you would die for me gladly gave your life for me, cry for me, all so I could call you when I'm so in need of promises you've spoken, my heart was always broken, cause you gave the keys to life but in my pride I had them stolen, you say you still redeem us bring us to a place where we can see the keys can never be stolen they just misplaced and so we rise from the ashes, stand 'fore the masses proclaim the victory is ours and so we (never give up)
even though times get hard to understand, (it's never enough) for us to sit back and hope he has a plan (we gotta stand up) and face the cold with a boldness that is focused on the fact we got the keys so just believe there's nothing closed

[CHORUS]

So many promises you gave, and we just turned and walked away but now I see the price you paid was enough for us to live victorious (we can't be stopped)
victorious
(we can't be stopped)
