Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures: ‘The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes’? Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits. And the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him.”

When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he was speaking about them. And although they were seeking to arrest him, they feared the crowds, because they held him to be a prophet.

Jesus told a story about a man who owned a vineyard.
 When this man went away, he hired tenants.
 "Tenants" are people who are paid to care for things.
 What work would you do if you were a tenant?

*To find out, write the words from each shape
 on the lines beside that same shape.*

By telling the parable of the evil tenants,
 Jesus reminded the leaders
 that even though he was the Son of God,
 they were treating him like the owner's son in the story.

*Write the correct rhyming words from the Word Bank
 on the lines below, and complete the poem!*
