First Reading Daniel 12:1-3

¹“At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone whose name shall be found written in the book. ²And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky above; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

Psalms 16 (Read responsively by half verse) P. 220-221

Second Reading Hebrews 10:11-25

¹¹Every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹²But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. ¹⁴For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. ¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, ¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds,” ¹⁷then he adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” ¹⁸Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. ¹⁹Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

*The Alleluia

P. 62

*Gospel:

Mark 13:1-13

¹As {Jesus} came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher, what wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!" ²And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down." ³And as he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴"Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are about to be accomplished?" ⁵And Jesus began to say to them, "See that no one leads you astray. ⁶Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. ⁷And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. This must take place, but the end is not yet. ⁸For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. These are but the beginning of the birth pains. ⁹But be on your guard. For they will deliver you over to councils, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them. ¹⁰And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. ¹¹And when they bring you to trial and deliver you over, do not be anxious beforehand what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. ¹²And brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death.

¹³And you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved."

P. 75

Lord Jesus, strengthen, sustain and guide your Church, to proclaim your love and demonstrate the power of your Holy Spirit. Make the church bold and courageous in the face of ridicule and persecution in the world. Use us all to lead the world to know you, the author and giver of life, both now and forever.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Generous God, you have given us all that we have, use, and enjoy in this life. Let us be grateful for your bounty. Give us a clarity of vision according to your will and a firm sense of the church's mission to the world. Form us into people with generous hearts, so through our faithful participation in God's mission the kingdom of heaven may be extended and all may be invited.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

God of life, we give thanks for all those who have faithfully served this country in the military or in public service. As we remember all Veterans, we ask for your healing power in their lives as many have seen and experienced dreadful situations in the line of duty. Grant them peace and mercy as you hold them in the palm of your hand.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Compassionate God, we pray for those who are ill. We especially pray for ...] Bring healing strength to their illness and bring mercy so they may know you love them. Surround them with your very presence and let them know of your love for them.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.
