All Saints' Sunday, November 7, 2021

A WARM WELCOME TO ALL who are worshiping with us today! We hope that the service will be a joy and blessing to you.

Today we celebrate the Lord's Supper. All who believe that Christ is present in this Sacrament are invited to share in His supper. You may kneel or stand at the altar rail, as you are able. The inner glasses are grape juice. Children who have not received Communion instruction should stand at the altar with their arms crossed upon their chest to receive a Baptismal blessing.

LBW - Green Hymnal *Please stand as able.

We remember the following departed loved ones who were members of First Lutheran or in whose funerals our Pastor Gronbach participated since last All Saints' Day:

- First Reading Revelation 4:1, 8b-11, 5:6, 8-14

After this I looked, and there in heaven a door stood open! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this." Day and night without ceasing they sing, "Holy, holy, holy, the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come.” And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the one who is seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever, <sup>10</sup>the twenty-four elders fall before the one who is seated on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever; they cast their crowns before the throne, singing, <sup>11</sup>“You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.”

5:6 Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb.... 5:8 When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. They sing a new song: “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from<sup>[d]</sup> every tribe and language and people and nation; <sup>10</sup>you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving<sup>[d]</sup> our God, and they will reign on earth.”

<sup>11</sup>Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, <sup>12</sup>singing with full voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”<sup>13</sup>Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, “To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!” <sup>14</sup>And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Psalm 149 (responsively by whole verse)

Second Reading

1 John 3:1-3

<sup>1</sup>See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, we are God’s children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. <sup>3</sup>And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

P. 62

*Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

<sup>1</sup>Seeing the crowds, {Jesus} went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. <sup>2</sup>And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: <sup>3</sup>“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. <sup>4</sup>Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. <sup>5</sup>Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. <sup>6</sup>Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. <sup>7</sup>Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. <sup>8</sup>Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. <sup>9</sup>Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. <sup>10</sup>Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. <sup>11</sup>Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

P. 65

We sing with praise, Lord Jesus, for the love you showed us in suffering and dying on the cross for our sins. You alone bring us the joy and hope of eternal salvation. Walk with us each day as we continue to sing your praise.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Eternal God, we give you thanks for all who have lived and died believing in your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Thank you for the memories we share of loved ones. Those memories are such precious gifts from your most gracious hand. Give us grace to trust your Word and your promise of eternal life together with those who have gone before us. Let us be encouraged by the witness of their lives of faith.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

O God, ruler of heaven and earth, strengthen all who serve in public offices. Give them knowledge of the importance of their roles as public servants. Guide all who participate in the political process and help us to exercise our privilege to vote, that we may do so with the nature of your reign as our standard for good leaders.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus, you prepare a place for us even in the presence of our last enemy, death itself. We thank you for leading safely home all those who listened to your voice in this earthly life [especially ...]. Keep us close to your side and lead us to that place where we shall dwell with you and all the redeemed, and feast at your heavenly table forever.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.
