Now when John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, “Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?” And Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. And blessed is the one who is not offended by me.... He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Today's Gospel Lesson

Third Sunday of Advent
December 11, 2022

Jesus sent people to tell John the Baptist about all they had seen and heard.

Jesus helped and healed many people.
His special deeds were called "miracles."

In each box, draw a picture of a person before and after being healed by Jesus.

A blind person....	...can see!
Someone with a hurt leg...	...can walk!

In James 5:7-8, we are told to be like farmers.
After planting their crops, what must farmers be?

*To find the answer, look at the garden below.
Then, write the correct letter
in the matching vegetable shape.*

To be _____ means to wait calmly.
While waiting for Jesus to return, we can be _____ like a farmer!
