Fourth Sunday of Advent*

First Lutheran Church – Putting Christ First
Fourth Sunday of Advent – December 18, 2022

A WARM WELCOME TO ALL who are worshiping with us today! We hope that the service will be a joy and blessing to you. Please complete the black friendship register and pass it down the pew.

Today we celebrate the Lord's Supper. All who believe that Christ is present in this Sacrament are invited to share in His supper. The inner glasses on the tray are water and grape juice, the rest of the glasses are wine. Children who have not received Communion instruction should kneel at the altar with their arms crossed upon their chest to receive a Baptismal blessing.

LBW-green hymnal *Please stand as able.

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

- *Brief Order for Public Confession p. 98
- *Opening Hymn: "Rejoice, Rejoice, Believers" LBW 25
- *Apostolic Greeting and Kyrie p. 99
- *Glory to God in the Highest p. 100
- *Prayer of the Day

Stir up your power, O Lord, and come. With your great might, give us your help, that whatever is hindered by our sins may be speedily accomplished by your grace; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Children's Sermon (Children go to Sunday School after this.)

First Reading

Isaiah 7:10-17

¹⁰Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz: ¹¹"Ask a sign of the LORD your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven." ¹²But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test." ¹³And he said, "Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary men, that you weary my God also? ¹⁴Therefore the LORD himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. ¹⁵He shall eat curds and honey when he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶For before the boy knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be deserted. ¹⁷The LORD will bring upon you and upon your people and upon your father's house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah — the king of Assyria!"

Psalm 24 (read responsively by whole verse)

p. 225-226

Second Reading

Romans 1:1-7

¹Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, ²which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, ³concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh ⁴and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, ⁵through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, ⁶including you who are called to belong to Jesus Christ, ⁷To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Alleluia

p. 104

Gospel

Matthew 1:18-25

¹⁸The birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹And her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly. ²⁰But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." ²²All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: ²³"Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel" (which means, God with us). ²⁴When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife, ²⁵but knew her not until she had given birth to a son. And he called his name Jesus.

Sermon:

"SOMEWHERE BETWEEN HEAVEN AND HELL"

*Hymn of the Day: "Hark, the Glad Sound!"

*Prayers of the Church

p. 106

Gracious God, despite our sin and our unworthiness, you welcome us into your presence with love and forgiveness. Just as we have been forgiven and welcomed, grant that this congregation would extend your hospitality to others in the name of Christ. Give us the grace to share your love, welcoming with your Word all those who seek your grace and mercy.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Lord God, our beginning and end, even as we prepare to celebrate your Son's birth with joyful anticipation, help us also to prepare for his return with hopeful joy. Keep us faithful to the mission to which you have called us as we wait, for it is in waiting well that we shall experience the joyous hope of Jesus' imminent return.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

Blessed are you, O Lord our God. You bring forth bread from the earth to feed your people of every time and place. Help us to see what you have given, not as our own to hoard, but as that which you desire us to share and distribute to the world. Use us to meet the needs of those around us, both near and far.

Lord, in your mercy. Hear our prayer.

God of compassion, you call us to care for all in need. We thank you for entrusting to us the resources and skill to serve others around us. Hear our prayers for the unemployed, or underemployed, orphans, widows, and all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit [we pray especially for ...]. Use us to be ministers of your grace for the benefit of our neighbors.

Lord in your mercy. Hear our prayer.
