Direct our hearts, O Lord, by your merciful reign, because without your help it is impossible to please you. Grant this, we pray, through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Children's Sermon (Sunday School to follow)

First Reading Isaiah 55:6-9

⁶“Seek the LORD while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; ⁷let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. ⁸For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD. ⁹For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

Psalms 27:1-13 (read responsively by half verse) P. 227

Second Reading Philippians 1:12-14, 19-30

¹²I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, ¹³so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ. ¹⁴And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

¹⁹... {F}or I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, ²⁰as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death. ²¹For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. ²²If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell. ²³I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. ²⁴But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account. ²⁵Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again. ²⁷Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, ²⁸and not frightened in anything by your opponents. This is a clear sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God. ²⁹For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake, ³⁰engaged in the same conflict that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

*Gospel

Matthew 20:1-16

¹{Jesus said,} “For the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. ²After agreeing with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³And going out about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the marketplace, ⁴and to them he said, ‘You go into the vineyard too, and whatever is right I will give you.’ ⁵So they went. Going out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour, he did the same. ⁶And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing. And he said to them, ‘Why do you stand here idle all day?’ ⁷They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You go into the vineyard too.’ ⁸And when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last, up to the first.’ ⁹And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, each of them received a denarius. ¹⁰Now when those hired first came, they thought they would receive more, but each of them also received a denarius. ¹¹And on receiving it they grumbled at the master of the house, ¹²saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' ¹³But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?' ¹⁴Take what belongs to you and go. I choose to give to this last worker as I give to you. ¹⁵Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity?' ¹⁶So the last will be first, and the first last."

P. 75

Heavenly Father, you have called us from among the peoples and nations of the world to be your own and to serve you with our lives. We pray that you would keep us steadfast in faith. May we sing your praises and confess Christ as Lord to all we meet so they would know your mercy and grace.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We give you thanks, O Lord, for the gift of the seasons. As we move into the season of Autumn, may we find delight in the changing landscapes around us that reveal the beauty of your creation. May we be reminded of your never-failing presence in all the seasons of our lives.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

O Lord, source of all good things, make us respond to those around us with the same generosity that you have first shown to us. Let us put our complete trust in you alone.

Lord in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

Heavenly Father, pour out the healing grace of your presence on all those who are sick and suffering, [particularly] Restore wounded lives, hearts, and bodies by the holy anointing of your Spirit.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

DISTRICT CONVOCATION

The Annual Great Rivers Mission District convocation is Saturday, October 14, in Flanagan, Illinois. Keynote speaker will be Pastor Brad Hales from Reformation Lutheran Church in Virginia. He is also NALC Church Director for Church Planting/Aging and is a very dynamic speaker and motivator within the NALC. We are looking for another person/delegate to join Pastor Tom at this all-day event. If interested, please talk to the Pastor prior to the October 10 Council Meeting.

BEN BLOBAUM'S ORDINATION

Ben Blobaum's Ordination Invitation is on the narthex bulletin board.

THANK YOU!!

Thank you to the brothers & sisters of the church. Marge is doing better, and the prayers helped and are greatly appreciated!

CHURCH FUN FACTS

In 1985 Paul Whitcombe, the choir director during Gordon Rasmussen's organist days, put choir music on cassette tapes and made them available for a donation.

ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE

Have you RSVP'd for the Anniversary dinner? There is limited seating available. We are getting close to capacity, so call Connie Worden at 815-721-1605 or email the office at secretary@kirklandflc.org by October 1.

STREET LIGHT DECORATING

FLC will again be decorating a street light pole downtown for the Christmas season, and we are inviting the congregation to submit ideas for a new decoration. Possibly our 150th anniversary could be part of the theme! Please submit any ideas to a council member.

CHURCH LIGHTS & HEAT/AIR CONDITIONING

If you notice the lights or the narthex heat/air conditioning on after a service, please feel free to turn them off. Help us to keep costs down.

PING PONG TABLE AND /OR DESK

I am doing a bit of housekeeping downstairs in the Sunday school area. There is a ping pong table in good shape for anyone to take home. There is a nice heavy desk in the room across from the Sunday school area. It needs a new home.

Donations are accepted for the Sunday School program. Please contact Susan Wilson (224) 629-0016.

If nobody wants the items, I will advertise on marketplace, and Vsale. (the computer) and the monies collected will go towards Sunday school.

Thank you kindly,
Susan Wilson
