*Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, whose mercies are new to us every morning, and who, though we have in no way deserved your goodness, has abundantly provided all our needs of body and soul: Give us, we pray, your Holy Spirit, that we may wholly acknowledge your merciful goodness toward us, give thanks for your benefits, and serve you in willing obedience; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

Children's Sermon (Sunday School to follow)

First Reading Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

¹¹For thus says the LORD God: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his sheep that have been scattered, so will I seek out my sheep, and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. ¹³And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴I will feed them with good pasture, and on the mountain heights of Israel shall be their grazing land. There they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on rich pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I myself will make them lie down, declares the LORD God. ¹⁶I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them in justice.

²⁰“Therefore, thus says the LORD God to them: Behold, I, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you push with side and shoulder, and thrust at all the weak with your horns, till you have scattered them abroad, ²²I will rescue my flock; they shall no longer be a prey. And I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³And I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. ²⁴And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them. I am the LORD; I have spoken.”

Psalm 95:1-7a (Read Responsively by Whole Verse) P. 260-261

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 15:20-28

²⁰But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. ²²For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. ²³But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. ²⁴Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. ²⁵For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶The last enemy to be destroyed is death. ²⁷For “God has put all things in subjection under his feet.” But when it says, “all things are put in subjection,” it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. ²⁸When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all.

*The Alleluia P. 62

*Gospel Matthew 25:31-46

³¹{Jesus said to the disciples,} “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. ³²Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. ³⁴Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, ³⁶I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' ³⁷Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? ³⁸And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? ³⁹And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' ⁴⁰And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' ⁴¹"Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴²For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, ⁴³I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' ⁴⁴Then they also will answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you?' ⁴⁵Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' ⁴⁶And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

*Prayers of the Church

P. 75

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. Another year in the church has ended, reminding us that our time in the present world will also end in you. Teach us to number our days, that we may live in the confidence that you reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God forever, the King of truth.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Heavenly Father, Jesus said that whatever we do to those who are the "least," we also do to him. Make us generous in our words, actions, and with our resources, that we would follow Jesus in loving discipleship all our days. Let us not look past those in need or neglect those who are suffering, rather let us give of ourselves and trust that God will use us to care for his people.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Lord of the Sabbath, be with all of us this day that we would find rest and regeneration. Help us to hear and know you in our keeping of the Sabbath so that we might be renewed for work in your kingdom. each and every day.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Life-giving Spirit, transform our communities into places of welcome for those who have been shunned or marginalized. Help us to see in them the very presence of our Lord Jesus. Then by your power, send us forth with greetings of grace and peace on our lips and compassion and mercy in our hearts. Be with all who suffer [especially...]

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

HELP RETRIEVE DECORATIONS AFTER WORSHIP

Please help prepare for the Advent and Christmas seasons by bringing the decorations from the archive room to the fellowship hall. HELP DECORATE for the seasons on Monday, Nov. 27th at 10am. Many hands make light work. Thank you for your help.

Children's Christmas Program is right around the corner, only 2 weeks left to practice! Costumes & singing rehearsal are needed to make certain the program runs as smoothly as possible. Sunday school attendance is encouraged.

Poinsettia Memorial Garden - Order forms are in the Narthex.

SOCKS

The Lydia Circle will be collecting new, white socks until Dec. 17th for the homeless in our area. There is a socks box in the narthex.

KIRKLAND FOOD PANTRY PREPARES FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON

There were 62 turkey meals handed out on Monday and Tuesday. Thank you to all who donated towards the purchase of the meals.

The dedicated volunteers spent Monday unloading a food truck and preparing a food line for the meal boxes for pick up, only to learn that the turkeys and meat for Tuesday's pantry day were not on the truck. The truck driver returned later while phone calls were made to ask people to come from 2-4pm instead of 12-2pm. Tuesday was a normal food pantry day, open from 12-2pm, with set-up at 9:30am prior to opening.

Very busy days for the food pantry volunteers! THANK YOU for your dedication!

STEWARDSHIP DRIVE

Did you receive a Stewardship Drive envelope or possibly may have misplaced it? If you would like to have an envelope, ask Dianna Wittwer for one. If you have placed your envelope in the office, offering plate or on the altar – THANK YOU! Our church is very active and without volunteers we wouldn't have such a vibrant and welcoming church. We are very grateful to all our contributors, whether that be financially, by volunteering or possibly both.

CHRISTMAS IN KIRKLAND will be Saturday, December 9th. See the Bulletin board for the full details and the Methodist Church's Craft & Cookie Extravaganza.

Sunday 11/26: Join us after the service for Adult Forum and coffee in the Fellowship Hall.

Monday, 11/27: Clothes Closet open, 12-1:30pm.

Tuesday 11/28: Food Pantry Set-up, 9:30-11am; dist., 12-2pm.

Wednesday 11/29: On-line Bible Study, 7pm.

Saturday 12/2: Communion Service, 5:30pm.

Sunday 12/3: Communion Service; Sunday School to follow, 9am. The Children's Christmas program is Dec 10th.

PARISH CONCERNS

Please keep in your daily prayers all people in need, including those mentioned here:

- Emmaline Haag is having some kidney health problems. Pray for a clear diagnosis.
- Beau Norris, age 11, will be having a cardiac procedure on Dec. 12th. Beau is the son of Brad & Denise, and grandson of Val Norris.
- All those who are suffering physical or mental illness, and their families, caregivers, and medical teams, especially Chuck Schindler, Ina Koehler, James Klus, David Sanderson, Jim Hetland, Susan & Jim Colgan, Mark Bernhardt, and Riley Wrobel.
- Pray for pregnant women and the babies they are carrying.
- All those who are not able to worship with us because they are in health care facilities or homebound: Nancy Bakanas, George Vodden, Dale Johnson, and many others.
- All those who are affected by the Middle East unrest.
- Our church and its activities, and all Christian churches.
- All elected leaders, police officers, first responders, and military personnel, that they hear and receive God's guidance and protection.
- The NALC, NALS, the Great Rivers Mission District, and all Christian churches.
