And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil.

Part of each picture below is in shadow.
Draw the missing pieces, and bring everything into the light!

"But whoever does what is true comes to the light,
so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God." (John 3:21)

A church wants to tell others about God.
But the letters on their billboard are all jumbled up.
Can you fix them?

To make the message clear, change each letter
to the one that comes after it in the alphabet.
Then, write the new words on the blank billboard below!
